SLAVES OF THE TRACK.

Some American owners of race horses exact an amount of track work from their fleet-footed bread winners that in England, the birthplace and home of racing, would be deemed extremely cruel. And except in the cases of a few truly iron horses it is cruel. But the needs or cupidity of certain owners shut out sentiments calling for kinder treatm nt and whenever the conditions of a purse allow an entry there the names of their horses appear. To show how many horses are thus forced to show a clear title to their hay and oats DAILY RACING FORM here prints the names and performances of the horses that ran forty or more races last year. It is a large list, but it would have been more than doubled had it been based on thirty or more races. Tappan enjoys the doubtful distinction of standing at the head and is one of the horses that seems to thrive on hard work. It is somewhat surprising that such a two-year-old as Florizar, supposed to be a colt likely to develop into a stake winning three-year-old, has been started in fifty-three races. The list is interesting as showing what the thoroughbred can stand and still go on.

HORSES AT GRAVESEND.

Concerning horses, well known and otherwise, now in winter quarters at the track of the Brooklyn Jockey Club, the Morning Telegraph of Thursday says:

"Trainer E. L. Graves, whose barn is adjacent to W. C. Daly's, on the Brooklyn Boulevard, was out in the early hours with his string in two sets. Mr. Graves, mounted on a racer always accompanies his horses around the course while at exercise. He likes the exhilaration of the exercise and can better superintend the paces of the set when he mingles with them.

"The stable's Brooklyn and Suburban Handicap candidate, Box, was a conspicuous member of the first set that trotted and cantered. The five-year-old son of Ordèr—Pandora never looked in better shape. He bears every mark of health and strength, shows not the slightest signs of the unevenness of temper which he sometimes displays in his races, and his trainer says a child can ride him with a thread. His speed is well known, and with any indulgence in the weights by the handicapper his admirers are sure to see him at the post fit and well.

"King Barleycorn, another candidate for both events, now in trainer Graves' hands, looks an entirely different horse. He has filled out and thickened surprisingly, and no more wears the lean and hungry look with which racegoers are so familiar. He is as fast as the wind when he is in the mood, and any horse that wears Imp's scalp at his belt is bound to have a chance, let the field be what it will.

"The stable's two-year-olds are a tidy lot, and, like the two handicap offerings, are wintering in fine shape. The stable has signed Hothersall to ride during the season, and as the lad can scale as low as 90 pounds he should be a most valuable light weight.

"Eugene Leigh's May Hempstead, which is carded for both the Brooklyn and Suburban, is most promising in looks. She takes her light exercise regularly and seems as sound as a new-milled dollar, and the stable has every hope of her rounding to again into her old shape. Mr. Leigh has lately received a new addition to his establishment in the shape of a consignment of five good looking, well bred two-year-olds, just from the blue grass regions of Kentucky.

"They are a most promising lot, the Cheviot—Reilly and the Belvidere—Virgia L. colts being particularly noticeable as well turned youngsters.

"P. J. Dwyer's four-year-old Half Time, an eligible for both the big handicaps, is, under trainer Frank McCabe's hands, doing the light work necessary to fit him for the events in good style. He is racy looking, has wintered well, and the reliable trainer is sure to bring him to the post fit and ready.

"The extraordinary good weather and perfect condition of the track proved so tempting that when the sun was well up yesterday and everything was propitious the first breezing work of the season was essayed by a couple of the prominent strings. A trio of the J. H. Carr lot, which is stabled at his fine barn near King's Highway, was brought to the course and sent a quarter in 0:26¼. It was a neat bit of work and as a lesson in fast galloping it is sure to do them good.

"Trainer Howard Williams, who manages the W. M. Barrick string, having several youngsters in his barn who have had but little practice in speed work and who have been but lately broken, sent a couple a quarter at a good clip and they behaved admirably.

"All of the youngsters at the track are most forward and seem quite prepared for what is expected of them. They are being taught not to fear the surroundings, and, trolley car or harrow, it is just the same to them. As a practice in fearlessness of the former, a set of ten of the G. B. Morris youngsters are regularly exercised over the roads as far as Sheepshead Bay, where many cars are passed, and there has not been a sign of a runaway."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

At midnight of this day the stakes offered by the St. Louis Fair Association close. Besides the St. Louis Derby of 1901, with its rich endowment of $5,000 added money, twenty-four stakes for the meeting of next spring and summer solicit entries from western owners, and they will be remiss in looking out for their own interests if they fail to patronize these well devised and liberal events. However, there is no reason to doubt that they will receive generous patronage. St. Louis is a popular point with western owners. Racing is well managed there and the patronage awarded the sport is up to the best standard and increasing from year to year.

AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL.

The American Sporting Manual of 1900 contains all racing records at large, revised and complete up to the end of 1899; four handicapping systems with directions for their practical application, a table showing how to compute bookmaking percentages, track records of all the recognized tracks of the country, the western and eastern scales of weights, tables showing the comparative speed of tracks, a complete list of pugilistic contests of 1899 of any consequence, trotting and pacing records at all distances and a list of the new 2:15 trotters of 1899. Also a complete record of performances at all styles of billiards, together with scores of all the important matches and tournaments of 1899.

OFFICERS FOR ENSUING YEAR.

W. F. SCHULTE, President.
Address, Louisville, Ky.
JAMES HOWARD, Vice-President.
Address, Chicago, Ill.
O. L. BRADLEY, Treasurer.
Address, Lexington, Ky.
E. C. HOPPER, Secretary.
Address, Covington, Ky.
J. B. DILLON, Assistant Secretary.

New member elected—The Western Turf Association of South San Francisco, Cal.

By-Law XVI changed so as to provide for an assistant secretary.

By-Law XIX changed by adding the words "through the secretary" after the word "Congress" in seventh line.

Rule No. 6 was stricken out.

Rule No. 17 was changed to read as follows: The colors selected by owners must be registered with the Secretary of the Congress and when thus registered shall not be used by others except in case of death or after five years' withdrawal from the turf. Any owner racing in colors not registered shall be fined. A fee of $1.00 shall be charged for registering and the Secretary shall issue a certificate of registration. In case of conflicting claims those now registered with the Secretary shall have prior claim.

A list of colors that have been registered shall be furnished each member by the Secretary of the Congress and shall be posted in the office of the Clerk of the Scales.

Rule 18—Every person or horse expelled or ruled off by any reputable running association, or by the American or the National Trotting Association, shall stand ruled off the courses of the members of this Congress during the continuance of such expulsion. Any Association that shall knowingly allow any ruled-off or expelled person or horse to participate in its racing shall be outlawed.

Rule 27—Any owner, trainer, jockey or horse, that shall in any way participate in racing under injunction proceedings, or any owner, trainer or jockey that shall attempt to nullify by legal process the rulings of officials in case of fraud shall be barred from all privileges of the tracks of this Congress. This rule to take effect from date of passage.

Rule 95—Declarations in purse races must be made by the owner, trainer or other person deputed by him, to the Secretary or his assistant by 12 o'clock (noon) of the day of the race, or at such other time as he may appoint.

When a party having more than one horse entered in a purse, shall declare one out, he thereby declares all out, but this rule shall not apply to handicaps.

Declarations in purse races must be accompanied by five (5) per cent. of the first money.

In purse races with more than eight entries, owners can declare out to that number free of charge, the right to declare free being determined by lot, as occasion may require.

All declaration fees in purse races shall go; 60 per cent. to second horse and 40 per cent. to third horse.

In case one horse distances the field in heat races, all entrance and declaration money must go with the purse.

Rule 105—No jockey, except when riding for his contract employer, shall be weighed out for any race unless there has been deposited for him with the Clerk of the Scales the fee for a losing mount in that race, and the Clerk of the Scales shall keep the accounts for the jockeys, pay over to them the money collected, unless he has notice to the contrary, and for his services shall receive two per cent. of the amount collected. The failure to deposit this fee for the jockey engaged for any horse shall declare it out of the race.

Rule 157—Stricken out.

Rule 160—In selling races the horse's engagments are included if the horse is bought claimed.

Rule 172—Owners and trainers employing riders, grooms or attendants shall make their contracts in writing, properly signed and witnessed, whenever the time covered by the contract exceeds thirty days. Any person who shall entice or attempt to entice away from an employer, a rider, groom or attendant who is under contract, may be fined or ruled off. No contract shall be binding under these rules, the provisions of which give an employer any interest whatever in the earnings of a jockey, and the License Committee shall grant no license to jockeys bound by such contracts. Any employer or jockey misrepresenting the terms of any contract shall be ruled off.

In the absence of written agreement the engagement of a jockey, groom or attendant terminates with the last day of each month. If a jockey, groom or attendant be prevented from riding or service by suspension for fraudulent practices or other misconduct, any person who has retained or employed him may cancel the contract or retainer. In like cases, if any owner or trainer be prevented from running or training by suspension for fraudulent practices or other misconduct, the rider, groom or attendant may cancel the contract or retainer.

Rule 176—Jockey fee is fixed at $25.

Rule 178—If a jockey engaged for a certain race, or for a specified time, refuses to fulfill an engagement, the Judges shall fine or suspend him.

Rule 19—Steeplechases stricken out. It is a duplicate.

The following new Rule was adopted: No person against whom there are outstanding forfeit orders or other arrears issued by members of the Congress shall receive a trainer's or jockey's license until the same are paid.

The following new Rule was passed: Any person who shall enter or run a horse or allow a horse to be entered in a selling race while any claim is held against such horse, either as a bill of sale, chattel mortgage or lien of any nature, by anyone, without making the fact known at the time of entry shall be considered guilty of fraud and shall immediately be ruled off by the Judges, and any and all persons claiming title or ownership of any horse after such horse has run in the name of another person, having peaceable and undisturbed possession of same, shall be considered guilty of fraud and be ruled off by the operation of this rule. This rule to take effect immediately.

Messrs. Tarlton, Fowler and Hopper were appointed committee to edit rules.

The name of the Chicago Racing Association was changed on the records to the Chicago Jockey Club.

L. D. Hall, James Arthur and J. R. Hand, who participated in racing at Woodstock, Ill., run contrary to American Racing Rules, were reinstated. The horses, Barrier and Ramona, were refused reinstatement.

The mare Maxine, formerly Fleur de Lis, whose name was changed East to conform to their registration rule, was permitted to run under the name of Maxine on Congress tracks.

The following resolution was adopted: Inasmuch as the fund of the Turf Congress has accumulated beyond all possible future necessities, and as the fixed revenues are ample for annual expenses, Resolved, That the Congress appropriate to each of its members the sum of $1,000, or as much thereof as the different clubs may designate, to which a like amount shall be added by each club, to be known as the Turf Congress Sweepstakes of 1900, and to be run in one or more stakes as each club may provide. Of the sum appropriated one-half shall be paid to the trainers and jockeys of the three placed horses, as follows: Forty per cent., 20 per cent. and 10 per cent. to the trainers of the first, second and third horses respectively, and 15 per cent., 10 per cent. and 5 per cent. respectively to the jockeys riding them. And when any Association shall show to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Congress that the above stake has been given and that its conditions have been complied with in full, he shall authorize the Treasurer of the Congress to pay over to each one complying the requisite amounts.

The time for forfeiture of membership on account of not giving a meeting within the year was extended to September 1, 1900.

The registration rule was amended so as to conform to the rule governing the Stud Book, except that portion of the Stud Book rule relating to the naming of foals. The old naming rule still stands.

The Committee on Appeals has rendered the following opinions, viz:

"In the case of L. H. Ezell against the Harlem Jockey Club, we are of the opinion that Rule No. 26 was complied with. The rule does not contemplate that the complainant shall, in person, give notice within five days. We hold that he may in person, by an attorney, or other authorized person, give the notice. In what more official way could he give notice than through the Secretary of the Committee on Appeals? Hence the claim of the Harlem Jockey Club that Mr. Ezell could have no standing before the committee is untenable. So far as these papers show the decision of the club that the race was no contest is erroneous, and the purse should be paid to the proper parties."

Stanley Francis and John Krepper, outlaws, were reinstated by the committee.

Winner—B. c, by Masetto—Rathleen.

Post 3 minutes. Start fair; the first four were driving to the limit. Rathgar is a good colt and was much the best. He was bumped badly three times in the home stretch by Sig Levy. Dunfree finished strongly and is also a good colt. Sig Levy is a quick breaker and promising. He interfered with Rathgar and was rightly disqualified. Carlonian showed improvement over his first effort and seemed likely to win forty yards from the finish. Gaylon Brown ran a fair race.

Overweights—Dunfree, 2 pounds.

Rathgar, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Dunfree, place, 7 to 5; show, 7 to 10. Carlonian, show, evens.

Winner—B. g, by St. Andrew—Otyanna.

Post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second handily. St. Casimir outclassed the others and won as he pleased. Mountebank is rounding to and can do better when right. Diomed seemingly is not of much account. St. Anthony was in no shape to run and needs at least a couple of races to fit him.

St. Casimir, place, out. Mountebank, place, 2 to 1; show, 3 to 5. Diomed, show, out.

Winner—Ch. h, by Onondaga—Elsinore.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a hot drive of three. It was a rousing finish. Opponent stood a long drive gamely and barely landed. Topmast liked the light weight but was moved with a little too late. Scotch Plaid may have been best but his rush came too late. He was going strongest at the end. Einstein showed fine speed for seven and a half furlongs. Casdale was worn out in chasing Einstein.

Scratched—16319³Morinel, 93

Overweights—Scotch Plaid, 2 pounds; Einstein, 3.

Winner—Ch. c, by St. Leonards—Lucille.

Post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Sugden turned quite a lively form flip-flop, ran well and was going away at the end. Espirando ran a good race, weight considered, but tired in the last eighth. Anne Page finished strongly. Momentum showed speed and is improving. Modwena and Nora Ives had a stormy journey and ran fairly well. Croker got off poorly and was cut off three furlongs from home. Ach got off badly and showed but little speed.

Scratched—11007 Sokombeo, 117; 16347 Pongo, 114.

Sugden, place, 5 to 1; show, 2½ to 1. Espirando, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Anne Page, show, 2 to 1. Momentum, place, 7 to 5; show, 7 to 10. Croker, place, 3 to 2; show, 7 to 10.
